Logan is a brief-writing specialist and brief-writing coach for the firm. Logan's practice focuses on brief writing at the trial and appellate levels, as well as editing briefs and providing writing-related trainings. In addition to spearheading the briefing for numerous trial teams, Logan has co-chaired trials and served as lead attorney on a variety of civil litigation filed against federal agencies and employees. Logan has edited chapters of the Supreme Court Practice and Federal Appellate Practice treatises.

Logan joined Goldman Ismail after three years serving as an Assistant United States Attorney, six years as an associate at another leading national law firm, and federal judicial clerkships in the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals and the Northern District of Illinois. Logan graduated summa cum laude from Pomona College and cum laude from Harvard Law School, where she won the Ames Moot Court Competition and served on the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau.
